

Vibration Technologies for Stuck Pipe Retrieval

Presented by: Ozzie Gonzalez
November 19, 2009 - 11:30 am

Meeting held at Cudd Energy Services

7 Energy Way, Vilonia, AR 72173

Ozzie Gonzalez is a Mechanical Engineering graduate from the University of Buffalo in NY State. His background covers nuclear mechanical equipment design, computer based electronic measurements sales and support, and oil and gas research. Ozzie has taught and published in the area of Fourier Transform applications for the aerospace defense industry and vibration research for the oil and gas industry. His current position is that of Sr. Technology Development Engineer for Vibration Technology, Inc., a division of Layne Christensen Company.

Platinum Sponsorship:

www.arkansas-spe.org/central/

RSVP no later than November 17th.

Michelle Bass mwhillock@cudd.com

Cost: Free

Lunch Provided by: Vibration Technology, Inc.

Society of Petroleum Engineers